SUPERIOR QUALITY MEANS SUPERIOR COFFEE

KaffeeScape coffee is roasted from only the highest quality Arabica beans from around the world, including our organic and Fair Trade coffees. Our taste team monitors the quality of our beans constantly to ensure that you get the best tasting coffee possible.

Maintaining Flavor

Those top-quality beans are roasted using a technologically advanced 'fluid bed' roaster that does not recycle the hot air used to roast the beans like conventional roasters do. This technology keeps the beans from becoming scorched or burnt as often happens with conventional roasters. When hot air is recycled in a roaster, it can become smoky and leave deposits of tar or burnt oils on the beans, which ruins the taste of the coffee. Because our fluid bed roaster uses only fresh hot air, you're assured of high-quality taste and flavor.

No Caffeine, No Chemicals

Our decaffeinated coffees are made using only the Swiss Water Process to remove caffeine. Most coffee companies remove caffeine by using methylene chloride, a chemical that, although approved for use in coffee making by the FDA, is known to cause cancer in laboratory animals and gives a metallic taste to the coffee. However, the Swiss Water Process uses only water to remove caffeine. This process soaks the beans in water that is loaded with coffee flavor components. During the soaking caffeine leeches out of the beans and into the water. Because the water is charged with flavor components, the soluble flavor components in the beans do not leech out along with the caffeine. Afterward the water is filtered through activated charcoal to remove the caffeine and the flavor-full water is saved for the next batch of beans.

Minimal Calories

You want coffee with flavor—not calories. That's why KaffeeScape flavored coffees use only top quality natural flavoring oils that contain only 3 calories per pound.
